Hi Patrick – Carl would like another briefing on Coyote before we have a management call with ND and requests that we provide a paper for that briefing. I'll get clarification on Monday who he wants to be included in that but I believe it would be essentially the same participants as we had this week (perhaps Dan substituting for Andrea since she is out on extended leave). I'm attaching the latest briefing package for Hunter. I think this provides a good example of the type of background information that would be helpful as well as the options paper. Please prepare the paper with assistance as needed from Sara. While the timing doesn't appear to be critical, if we can pull something together quickly while it's fresh in Carl's mind, that would be good.
